

Wayne A. Bjorken

Objective

Contract Services – Software engineering including: Systems Engineering, Architecture, Development and Testing.

Experience

Dive and Boat Operations

- Nov 2003 - Dive Specialties – Boat, Deep, Wreck, EAN40%, Drift, Equipment Specialist,
- Oct 2003 - Professional Association of Dive Instructors – Master Scuba Diver Trainer
- May 2003 – Multinational Diving Educators Association - Level One Scuba Instructor
- July 2002 - United States Coast Guard Licensed Master 100GT Near Coastal
- May 2002- Scubapro Technician – Scubapro products
- Mar 2002 - United States Coast Guard Licensed Operator of Uninspected Vessel
- Jan 2003 - Professional Association of Dive Instructors – Open Water Scuba Instructor
- Aug 2001- Professional Association of Dive Instructors - Dive Master
- Oct 2000-Mar 2001 Applied Innovation, Dublin, OH

Senior Test Engineer

- Administer, configure and maintain software test platforms for AppliedView and other applications on Linux, HP-UX and Microsoft OS products.
- Author test plans per application requirements
- Execute test plans
- Performance budgets and baseline tracking

Nov 1999 – Oct 2000 Applied Innovation, Dublin, OH

Senior Customer Support Engineer

- Researched and resolved customer issues for 2nd Tier Support
- Authored first office application test plans
- Performed OS and application installations, updates and upgrades on customer owned UNIX platforms
- Provide customer solutions to include OAM applet scripting in KSH and 'C'
- HP-UX 11.X, Linux and Microsoft OS environments

product simulations and computer based platforms.

1986- 1988 Special Projects Development Group
AT&T Global Product. Training, Dublin, OH

Software Developer

- Designed component implants to accommodate multi-user environments on the Advanced Communications Product.
- Implemented internal switch emulation's on the ACP training platform to eliminate the need for switch connectivity.
- Delivered pilot real-time custom tailored training to ACP customers.

1979-1986 Hands-on/Lecture – Switching and Derivative Systems
AT&T Product Training Services., Dublin, OH

Course Developer/Instructor

- Developed and delivered AUTOPLEX 100 lecture based training to maintenance and installation personnel (customer and AT&T).
- Delivered 3B20 duplex maintenance training (DMERT/APS).
- Delivered 1AESS Hands-on training to maintenance and installation personnel.
- Developed hands-on training exercises to augment standard developed training curriculums.

1973-1979 Network Switching
Southern Bell Telephone, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Switch Equipment Technician 1/1AESS

- Switching Analyst—network switching control (SCCS).
- Switching equipment Growth and new installations management.
- Switch maintenance—software installations and upgrades.

1968 –1972 US NAVY – USS Forrestal CVA –59
GMG-2

1976- 1979 US Coast Guard Reserve Search and Rescue
Miami Group 1

EDUCATION, ETC.

1980-1981 Franklin University, Columbus Ohio
32 hours toward BS Buss. Admin 3.0+ GPA

1970-1975 RCA Institutes, New York, NY
Electronic Technologies with honors

1970-Present Approved Corporate Training Provided by:
Southern Bell, Western Electric, AT&T
and Lucent Technologies,

2000-Present

HP-UX 11.X System Administration

NEW CAREER –

PADI Open water Certification

PADI Nitrox 40%

PADI RESCUE – Bird's Underwater

PADI DIVEMASTER – Bird's Underwater

PADI IDC – DiveStation

Adams Marine Seminars OUPV

Adams Marine Seminars Master Upgrade

Scubapro Educational Association Tech ED

